AWARD: $150

BACKGROUND: Lloyd Burns was a beloved member of the Big Rock Singers choir for five seasons from 2014-2016. He passed away suddenly and unexpectedly on December 3, 2016 at the age of 71. Lloyd and his family have been residents of Okotoks for 40 years, since 1976. Lloyd was predeceased by his wife Bev in 2013 and is survived by one daughter, Stephanie – an Okotoks resident and graduate of Foothills Composite High School. At the time of his passing, Lloyd was Vice-President of the Big Rock Singers Board of Directors and sat on the Committee in charge of fundraising for a 2019 choir tour. Lloyd shared in many happy memories when he travelled with the Big Rock Singers to perform at the international Advent Sing Festival in Vienna and Salzburg, Austria on the choir’s first ever tour in November 2015. Lloyd was a gentle man – caring, kind and always willing to help. He was an eager volunteer and did not wait to be asked to participate in tasks for the choir, community, and friends. Lloyd loved to sing and to perform – he shared the joy of life with everyone he met with a ready smile, quick wit, and infectious laugh. As a singer and chorister, Lloyd demonstrated determination and courage. Lloyd took lessons to further develop his singing skills and confidence, and he was always willing to push himself to try, to attempt; eager to stand before small and large audiences, believing, “I can do it!” Joining the Big Rock Singers, being an enthusiastic “choir family” member and sharing in many musical adventures provided great joy for Lloyd and for his choir buddies!
