Key insights from results analysis of the impact of Engagement, Support and Success strategies Strengths and Areas for Refinement

Several data points from the provincial, divisional, community and school level were analyzed to inform the design of our strategies and areas of focus moving forward. In collaboration with these stakeholders, we broke these strategies down into Engagement, Support and Success. Each stakeholder group (students, school staff, parents, divisional staff and community) were also collaborators and had direct input on the development of these strategies. The strategies are also aligned with the associated competencies connected to the Teacher Quality Standard \(TQS\) to be applied in order to support optimum student learning.

Next Steps:

Engagement Based on School Developed Parent Survey and the Student Engagement Survey:

1. Continue to engage appropriate and meaningful stakeholder voice and feedback address and solve problems
2. Continue to Advance First Nations, Métis and Inuit student success through community engagement and connection
3. Continue to celebrate the actions and successes occurring at OHS (Oilfields High School) in relation to our strategies and education goals

3. Continue to increase visibility and access to supports for stakeholders within the school and community

Engagement

Our Story of Engagement

At Oilfields School, we are a 'Community of Learners Empowered for Life' working collaboratively with all stakeholders to ensure the highest quality of education for all learners. This work is based on the collection of voice from students, staff, parents, and community. As a team, our broader community works together to provide students with opportunities to connect their passions to experiences and ideas in and beyond the school walls. These opportunities are meant to build healthy, positive connections, and role models who can inspire each other for future success.

Over the course of the year, over 70 students have been involved in programs where their input is valued and helps shape the culture of our building. These opportunities include Student Matters, Sustainability, Winter Market, Student Leads for Programming, and Leadership. Student voice is shared while also providing opportunities for students to take on leadership roles that have the potential to impact our overall school culture.

We are fortunate to live in one of the most supportive communities imaginable. Whether it is volunteer coaches, Town Councils, or community members wanting to make a difference, we are fortunate to have many incredible people reach out to support our students, staff, and school with opportunities not realized at other institutions. We value and appreciate everything they do to support the vast opportunities presented now and in the future.

Support

Our Story of Support

The team at Oilfields School is committed to support students' growth and well-being through our continuum of supports that starts by establishing classroom and school wide expectations. Our school community works collaboratively to solve problems and challenges in the face of challenges that students may face.

In our support system, we have the Driller Den that is run by our Youth Development Coach. This space provides students with the opportunity to seek support and can also provide a quiet place for self-regulation. This support can include problem solving with other students and staff so that positive relationships can be developed for a strong working connection. Students who require food can also access breakfast, lunch and snacks through the Driller Den as needed.

The Family School Liaison Counselor works with students and families to provide social-emotional support and guidance. She can be found in her office or the Driller Den if students need support. To guide our students' academic and career choices, our School Counselor is available to all students, grades 7-12, and their parents to support their future aspirations. Her work also includes providing foundational work through My Blueprint that builds students awareness of their knowledge, skills, and attitudes relevant to today's job market. She can be found in her office or the Driller Den. Our Admin Team (Principal and Vice Principal) are here to ensure procedures and structures are in place to support our team, staff, and students. They are part of the larger team and decision-making process.

Success

Our Story of Success

Prior to the pandemic, our school team had been working collectively to design learning for deep understanding that transfers to real-life challenges and problems. As a team, we continue to work in professional learning teams to learn and grow our professional practice for instruction, assessment, and student learning. Our students can explore their career futures through the many complementary option courses available to them. This also includes off campus experiences through Green Certificate, Registered Apprenticeship Programs and Work Experience.

With the support of Canadian Researcher, Garfield Gini-Newman and Learning Services, our staff have had access to experts in planning and assessment to guide their work and student learning. Through this work, staff work to support literacy and numeracy needs within the context of their learning. We continue to focus and support students to see the relevance and importance of learning.

With the help of a CPIP grant, our team was able to create a cultural space designed to show appreciation and respect for our Indigenous students that is connected to the principles of the Circle of Courage (Belonging, Mastery, Independence, and Generosity). This space is for all students to build connections and bond over common interests.

GRADE Assessment (Literacy): This is an assessment, given to all students from grade 2-9, and any new FSD students entering grade 10. The purpose is two-fold. The first is to use the results to design instruction for all levels along the UDL continuum. The second is to flag students that may require a more in-depth diagnostic assessment to identify gaps in learning.
