Good morning,

This is a reminder that Coco Brooks orders will be ready for pickup today from 2:45–3:45 p.m. in the lobby at École Joe Clark School.

Please ensure orders are picked up during this time. If you are unable to attend, a friend or family member is welcome to collect your order on your behalf.

Please note that we do not have the freezer capacity to store orders overnight, so prompt pickup is essential.

Thank you for your cooperation.
