KEY INSIGHTS FROM RESULTS ANALYSIS

Areas of Strength

- Education Quality: FSD continues to demonstrate high standards, with education quality scores consistently above 83% and provincial scores above 87%.
- Parental Involvement: Provincial parental involvement has increased, reaching 80% in 2024-2025, reflecting effective engagement and communication with families.
- Stakeholder Engagement: Strong participation in assurance surveys and engagement opportunities supports collaborative decision-making and responsiveness to local needs.

Areas for Growth

- Continuous Improvement: The evaluation for improvement is marked as "Declined," highlighting the need to strengthen evidence-based planning and capacity building.
- Local Context Responsiveness: While stakeholder engagement is robust, translating feedback into measurable school improvement remains a challenge.

Next Steps

- Strengthen Continuous Improvement Cycles: Reinforce accountability and evidence-based planning at both division and school levels to foster ongoing growth and achievement.
- Enhance Communication and Engagement: Continue advancing stakeholder engagement and ensure feedback is systematically used to inform priorities, policies, and resource allocation.
