KEY INSIGHTS FROM RESULTS ANALYSIS

Areas of Strength

- Students and parents continue to report feeling safe and cared for at the school
- Students report feeling supported by teachers

Areas for Growth

- Build skills for student resilience
- Provide feedback and time for reflection to increase students' self-confidence, looking at individual growth and successes
- Intentional understanding with students and parents what levels of support are available in the school

Next Steps

- Update the Student Success Team to include the YDC, Mind Matters coach
- Increase time during staff meetings for mental wellness discussions
- Bridge supports from Division 2 to 3 so students are comfortable to access support
- Teach students to access assistive supports rather than people supports (advocacy, ownership)
- Build daily support for students' intervention
- Make SEL and Wellness part of the core instructional day
