5. Hot Lunch Committee

- a. Request from hot lunch volunteers that the teachers please return any leftovers from their bins and not give them out to students.
- b. Positive feedback on the vegetarian options for the home-made meals. Inquire if the homemade leftovers are being left at the school for us to hand out.
- c. Option to use gr. 8/9 students when short on parent volunteers to hand out hot lunches
- d. Ask Elizabeth David to tell Crystal (treasurer) the name of families who could use a hot lunch credit. Families would need to set up an account to which we could add money.

6. School Dance

- a. Sub- committee is being created. Add Anthony Rider as a parent volunteer.
- b. Admission will be free. Fundraising ideas include: Concession, Silent Auction, Sucker Pull Game, Donation Table and .25 cents to request a song from the DJ.

- c. Junior High students can be asked to help decorate, assemble candy bags, run concession, etc.
- d. Possible Dates: Friday, March 22nd or Friday, April 12th. March 22nd will be the target date.

7. Future Fundraisers

- a. Read-a-thon - currently ongoing. Proceeds go to the school library and literary resources
- b. Jump Rope - February Fundraiser. Junior High leadership class is helping with this.
- c. Dance - March 22 (with backup date as April 12)
- d. Chickens - decided the logistics were too involved. Pass on this for now.
- e. First Aid / Emergency Kits - Shannon Gosse will set up a table at the dance to sell
- f. Popcorn from Okotoks Cinema - Run from Jan 24 - Feb 1st. Nicole Mulholland will coordinate.
- g. Fundscripts - April/May

8. Review of "Wish List"

- a. Yearbook deficit of $4,000.00 has been covered by the school's general fund. Still owing is $5,800.00 in unpaid gymstrips and $4,500.00 in student handbooks, from previous years.
- b. We'd like to address the other requests on the school's "wish list" before we assess the deficit request.
- c. Request of $200 per classroom for enhancements is approved.

9. Adjourn

MOTION

By Nicole Brockhoff

That the meeting adjourn at 8:56
