KEY INSIGHTS FROM RESULTS ANALYSIS

Areas of Strength

- Strong clarity of vision, mission, and values (92%), indicating consistent alignment across staff.
- Historically strong collaborative culture and commitment to continuous improvement in earlier years.
- Evidence of structured professional learning and a focus on reflective practice.
- Systems and processes are in place to support collaboration, inquiry, and professional growth.

Areas for Growth

- Significant decline in teacher perception of professional learning and in-service support.
- Lower confidence in the professional body of knowledge and application to practice.
- Overall evaluation indicates declining improvement and very low achievement in key areas.

Next Steps

- Refocus professional learning to ensure it is targeted, relevant, and directly connected to classroom practice
- Strengthen collaborative structures (PLCs) to support consistent engagement in inquiry and reflection
- Increase staff voice and involvement in shaping professional learning priorities
- Monitor impact of professional learning more intentionally to ensure it improves teaching practice and student outcomes
